

July 2020

Directions: How many reading activities can you complete after your daily reading? Place a check mark next to the activity you completed. Return this calendar to me in September along with some of your work for a surprise reward.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
			1 Why did you choose this book to read?	2 Answer one of the comprehension questions from the list.	3 Send an email to someone you know telling them what your book is about so far	4 Happy Independence Day
5	6 Write a prediction!	7 Check your prediction. Was it correct? Explain.	8 What are you wondering about your book so far?	9 Answer one of the comprehension questions from the list.	10 Write about your favorite part of the story so far.	11
12 	13 How would you describe the main character? Explain.	14 Create questions and a game board for your book.	15 Answer one of the comprehension questions from the list.	16 Explain how one of your characters changed since you started reading.	17 Write a letter to the author telling him/her what you thought about the book.	18
19	20 What advice would you give the main character?	21 Answer one of the comprehension questions from the list.	22 If you were the author, what is one thing you would change about the book? Explain.	23 Choose a part of your book and act it out with a family member.	24 Write an alternate ending for your book or a continuation.	25
26	27 Answer one of the comprehension questions from the list.	28 What lesson do you think the author wants you to learn?	29 Call a friend or family member and tell them about your book!	30 If you had to give a behavior grade to the main character, what grade would you give? Explain.	31 Write a book review. What would you rate it? Do you recommend it? Explain.	