

Poetry

April is National Poetry Month

The background features several abstract, organic shapes in orange, pink, black, and blue. In the top left, there's an orange circle and a pink oval. In the top right, a large black circle is partially visible. Along the bottom, there are wavy, layered shapes in blue, orange, and black.

Poetry Resources

-
- The background is a light cream color. In the top left, there is a large orange circle and a smaller light purple circle. In the top right, there is a large black circle. In the bottom left, there is a blue wavy shape. In the bottom right, there are three overlapping wavy shapes in blue, orange, and black.
- What do you think Poetry is?

The background is a light cream color. It features several black five-pointed stars of varying sizes scattered across the top and bottom. On the left side, there are wavy, overlapping lines in shades of pink, orange, and blue. On the right side, there is a large orange semi-circle at the top and more wavy lines in blue, orange, and pink at the bottom.

What do you think?

- Who writes poems? (or, Who can be a poet?)
- What is a poem?
- When is a good time to write poetry? (or, When is poetry the best genre choice?)
- Where do poets get their inspiration?
- Why do authors write poetry?

POETRY

What is a haiku?

--Beep!

Elements of Poetry

- Rhythm (the beat)
- Rhyming (maybe)
- Alliteration (like :ten terrifying tigers)
- Descriptive language (5 senses)
- Shows feelings and emotions