

LIVINGSTON PARENT LEARNING SERIES

Events for March 2022

Dear Families,

For the month of March, we are excited to share a variety of new workshops. We look forward to the opportunity to learn, create, contribute, and grow with you!

Presented by Maryann D'Alessandro, Learning Disabilities Teacher Consultant and Dr. Mallory Seidman, School Psychologist

PRIDE PARENT WORKSHOP EXITING PRIDE: WHAT TO EXPECT

When: Thursday, March 3, 2:00-3:00 p.m.

Location: Remotely, via Zoom

Registration: Will be shared via email with PRIDE families.

For any students exiting PRIDE to kindergarten with an IEP, there is a process to determine what additional supports may be needed in kindergarten. The purpose of this workshop is to review this process

TEENS AND BODY IMAGE

(GRADES 7-12)

When: Thursday, March 10, 7:00-8:00 p.m.

Location: Remotely, via Zoom

Registration: No registration required

In this workshop, families will learn ways to talk to children about healthy body image and building a healthy relationship with food.

The presentation will also provide an overview of eating disorders, warning signs and symptoms, the impact of social media on body image, and resources and coping strategies.

Presented by The Center for Discovery
