

Mrs. Brown

Mrs. Brown's students learnt about Eleanor Roosevelt. She was an incredible and influential woman! We discovered how she overcame a difficult childhood to become an outspoken advocate for the poor and disadvantaged. We saw the many ways she helped those in need. Together with her husband they created the United Nations.

My students selected their favorite quotes and wrote what it meant to them.

