ABOUT ME

I have worked in the Livingston Public School District for the last seven years. This will be my third-year teaching PRIDE and I love it! I am currently continuing my education at William Paterson University. I was recently married this past June to my wonderful husband, Vinnie – I will soon be known as Ms.Tomasello but I am keeping my preschool name of Ms.P for the school year! I have an adorable pup named Lexi who lives with my mom (our family dog) but I visit her often and she comes for sleepovers!
