December 7, 2021

Dear Parents,

Believe it or not, we are already beginning to plan for the 2022 – 2023 scheduling process! Many of you are starting to discuss course selection for next year with your child. With that, it is important to know that several of our Advanced Placement \(AP\) courses have applications and indicators for success that are required to qualify for open enrollment into these programs. Additionally, several Honors courses offer qualifying assessments outside of the school day to indicate readiness and provide students and parents with important recommendation information to consider when making course selections. Please review this condensed list of these courses that require an application or qualifying assessment.

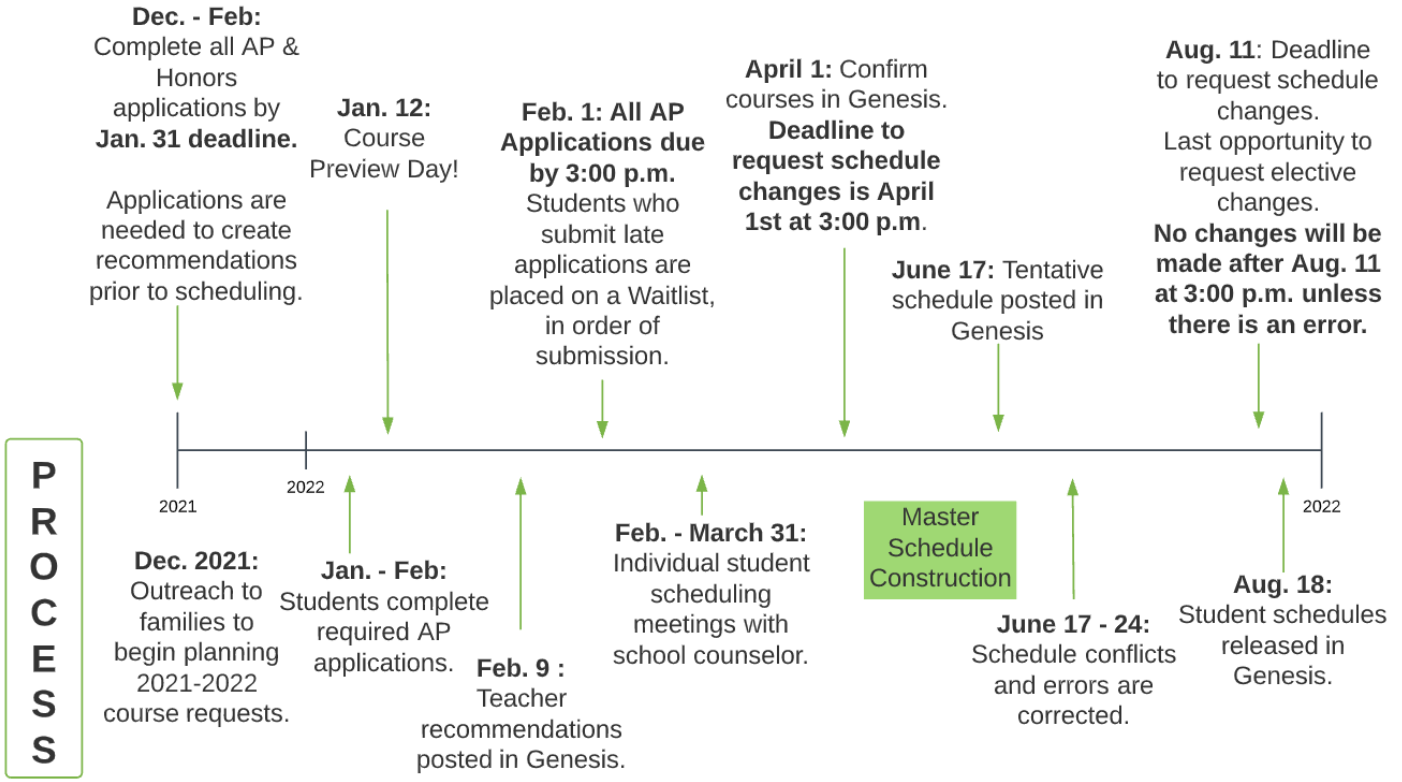

Please note: All AP course applications are due February 1, 2022 by 3:00 p.m. Any student who does not submit an application by this deadline will be placed on an AP Waitlist. Placement on a waitlist does not guarantee enrollment in the course. Please review the scheduling timeline below to ensure that you are meeting all necessary deadlines.

Important scheduling dates and a timeline for the scheduling process is shown below. Please note that applications and qualifying assessments for AP and Honors courses take place before students make course selections so that recommendations can be made in advance of their meeting with their school counselor. Should your child be interested in an AP course, or have any interest in exploring an AP course, we highly recommend they complete the AP application to leave their options open during their scheduling meeting. If you have any questions about a course requiring a qualifying assessment or application, please reach out to your school counselor prior to these deadlines.
