A Letter to King George III

Tensions are rising in the colonies. The British have instituted acts that colonists declare intolerable! You are an English colonist who supports the protests "Committee" and the Sons and Daughters of Liberty. They have asked those who are unhappy with the actions taken by the British Parliament to write to the king.

Write a Letter to King George III expressing your complaints:

- Include the date. (a date from when the act took place!)
- What is your name?
- Where are you from?
- What do you do for a living?
- What are your specific complaints?
- Why do you think the King should listen to you?
- What actions have you taken so far?
- How do you feel about the lack of respect given by the British to the colonists?
- What actions do you want the King to take now?
- What will you do if something does not change soon?

Those who go above and beyond the call of duty will make their letters rook like they were written during this period. Use your imagination and some tea … (hint hint!) However, it is most important that the letter is well written.

This means: (check off)

- ______ I have included all of the requirements listed above.
- ______ I have written my letter using complete sentences and have supported them with historical facts from class discussion, the textbook, and assignments.
- ______ I have re-read each sentence to be certain that they make sense and do not include grammatical or spelling errors.
- ______ I have asked a parent or friend to read over my letter and make suggestions.
- ______ I have used the correct format for a letter.
- ______ I am proud of the effort I put into this project.