What am I missing? I will keep trying because I can improve.

I'm not good at math; I'm not a good writer

I'm going to ask him/her about the strategy they used and try it too.

I can't make this any better. I'm just not good at it.

It may take time and effort, but I'll try a different strategy and hope to get it.

I am going to train my brain to work hard even when things are challenging.

I give up!
This is too hard.

It is easy for him/her. They are just smarter than me.
